Who's at your table?

Establishing equitable partnerships to inform decision making in learning communities

He aha te kaupapa?

What are you wanting to discuss or make a decision about?

ākonga

Tamariki ,

Kei te tēpu te katoa?

Are all of the people/groups who will be impacted by this decision, at the table?

Kāo

Are all voices being heard? Can all voices impact.

Kāo No

Taihoa e koke!

No

Put the conversation on hold. Invite all interested parties to the table. Gather all voices.

Te mahi tahi

Give mana to every voice at the table. Create a space for equitable partnership and shared decision making.

Hapū/iwi

Community

Kaiako

Leaders

Board of Trustees

Ko koe ki tēnā, ko ahau ki tēnei kīwai o te kete

Equitable partnerships are established and informing decision making

core-ed.org

